Word of the day

Comment on the daily
word of the day post
on Dojo—how can you use the word today?

scramble

To move quickly using both hands and feet.

“The fox scrambled up
the tunnel.”

Maths

Using natural objects make a pattern that is symmetrical.

Remember
symmetrical means exactly the same
at both sides, like a mirror image.

English

Edit the sentences you wrote on Tuesday.
Find the nouns (names of things, such as garden, tree, grass). Before every noun add an adjective to add some description to your sentences. You can use the adjective word mat from Wednesday's work to help you.

Keep Fit

Challenge

Walk somewhere new and sit and do some bird spotting!

Reading

Reading

Watch the video of Mrs Thompson reading the Chapter for today.

Superstar

Challenge

Make a music video to your favourite tune.

Phonics

Build a secret den! Use a secret password to allow people to get in. They must say 3 words that end with 'nk' before entering. each time they enter.

Topic

Watch this rather lovely documentary about birds. It is narrated by the wonderful David

Attenborough. Bird quiz tomorrow!
