

Who did Superworm help? What did he do to help them?

	Who?	How?
 A circular illustration showing Superworm, a large brown worm with a face, helping two yellow frogs. One frog is being held up by Superworm, and the other is being held up by Superworm's head. In the background, there are two blue beetles and a hand reaching out from the top.
 A colorful illustration of several flowers (blue, orange, red, white) with bees flying around them. Superworm is shown as a small worm inside one of the flowers, helping the bees.
 An illustration of a stone well with a red roof and a bucket hanging from a pulley. Superworm is shown as a small worm inside the well, helping the well.
