

Physical Education Matters at The Academy at St James

The Academy at St James is proud to present two articles in the nationally recognised Association for Physical Education journal 'Physical Education matters'

Physical Education Matters is published by the Association for Physical Education (afPE)

The journal aims to inspire, educate and entertain members by sharing information, research and practice from all those involved in physical education, school sport and physical activity, including policy makers, primary and secondary teachers, lecturers, advisers, consultants, coaches and students across the United Kingdom and beyond.

The journal is published termly (November, March and June).

Each edition includes one or two key themes as well as a range of topics relating to physical education and school sport. All physical education and school sport professionals are warmly invited to contribute. Please see the contributors' guidelines for further details.
