

The London Gazette

EXTRAORDINARY.

Published by Authority.

On Sunday 2nd September 1666 a fire ripped through the city of London. The blazing fire started on Pudding Lane in a small bakery. Thomas Farrinor was asleep when the fire started.

They collected water in leather buckets from the River Thames and threw the water on to the fire. People ran

LONDON ON FIRE!

Painting showing The Great Fire of London.

and screamed in the street because they were scared. Houses were pulled down to stop the fire. People jumped into boats on the River Thames for safety.

Use these labels to find and identify the special features of a newspaper report

³ uses pictures
with captions

⁴ includes facts
about the main event

¹ the name of the newspaper

² includes a headline

³ uses pictures
with captions

⁴ includes facts
about the main event

¹ the name of the newspaper

² includes a
headline